Motion by C. Brocious, seconded by L. Platz to table Dobler Hose's snowplowing request until more information is available, motion carried (2-0).

Stan Freeland presented Platea Fire Department's year-end report which included 63 calls to Girard Township. He also discussed the new tanker truck for the department.

COMMENTS FROM THE SUPERVISORS

C. Brocious thanked the road crew for keeping the roads safe and clear. L. Platz stated that there will be a virtual meeting between Girard Township, Girard Borough and Lake City Borough to discuss the Regional Police Study. The date of the meeting has not been determined.

COMMENTS FROM THE STAFF

Tiffany Kramer shared information she received about an adult Easter egg hunt fundraiser at Lake Erie Community Park, which would take place after park hours. The Supervisors will discuss whether this event will be allowed. John Adams asked Stan Freeland about possible tree trimming along Rt. 18 and Maiden Lane in Platea. Stan agreed to look into it.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Sandy Anderson discussed this year's Music in the Park. The concerts will be held from June 17th to August 19th. She mentioned that this will be her last year overseeing the event. She also inquired about the timeline for the pavement improvements at LECP. Jeff Orr had questions about the ownership of the roadway next to Dairy Queen, which he was told is owned by the business and not a township road.

Motion by C. Brocious, seconded by L. Platz, to adjourn the meeting at 4:28 p.m., motion carried (2-0).

Respectfully submitted,

Lindy L. Platz, Secretary
